For President in 1912,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT
of Ohio.

For Governor of Kentucky in 1911,
Lieutenant Governor WILLIAM H. COX of Maysville.

It is said that Mr. P. A. B. WIDENER, the Philadelphia magnate, denies that he has bought REMBRANDT'S "The Mill." Steel plant was probably what WIDENER bought.

"RAMBLING religious rubbernecks" is the way a New York Deacon refers to visitors to a popular Church, and yet there are apparently intelligent people who wonder at the small Church attendance in this country.

FIGURES from the German census of last December, announced some time ago, showed that Berlin had grown only 1% in the last five years, and with 2,064,000 inhabitants had yielded precedence to Vienna, which now has 4,000 more.

THERE is said to be published in a European country a weekly illustrated comic paper that is printed on cloth. It is printed with ink that can be dissolved in water, and so when the reader has finished with it he can wash off the ink and have left a perfectly good handkerchief.

A PROGRESSIVE Louisville man, Mr. FRED LEVY, has donated to that city 50,000 catalpa trees, which will be planted this week. The trees were secured in Ohio. Such acts as these are enduring and stamps the giver as a man who loves nature, the public and the city beautiful. Is there no one in Maysville who desires to give this old town a couple of thousand catalpas trees?

"BIG OLLIE" is a political muf. He knows the Caleb Powers matter is loaded. He dare not open his jaw about it.

OUR Selma correspondent tells of a widow who intends to order a husband from Sears & Roebuck. There are plenty of cheap men right here at home, and she'd save the freight. —Cynthiana Democrat.

SENATOR PAYNTER'S Democratic supporters are rallying to his standard all over the State, and, if indications go for anything, this genial Kentucky statesman will wipe the ground up with OLLIE JAMES, the bloviating professional politician.

THE newspaper report starting at Louisville and extensively given credit by certain local papers, stating that Governor W. H. Cox would withdraw from the race for Governor, is wholly and maliciously false. The report is merely inspired by political trickery and was done to injure the candidacy of Mr. Cox.

When Governor Cox was asked about the report he was not surprised, he said, as the opposition is and will resort to any means to hamper him in the race.

Governor Cox is not a quitter and he requested THE PUBLIC LEDGER to state emphatically that he was in the race to stay and firmly believes he will win both the nomination and the election.

So, now, this forever nails the initial campaign lie of the season. What will be the next?

The voters everywhere are rallying to the standard of the "Man From Maysville," and WILLIAM H. COX will be the next Governor of Kentucky.

TOWN POLITICS.

Puck.
"Well, who got the nomination, the chap who looked like Daniel Webster?"
"No. The feller that looked like ready money."

Biliousness

"I have used your valuable Cascarets and I find them perfect. Couldn't do without them. I have used them for some time for indigestion and biliousness and am now completely cured. Recommend them to everyone. Once tried, you will never be without them in the family." —Edward A. Marx, Albany, N.Y.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good. Do Good. Never Sicken, Weaken or Grip. 10c, 25c, 50c. Never sold in bulk. The genuine tablet stamped C.C.C. Guaranteed to cure or your money back.

The fifty-ninth annual reunion of the Scottish Rite Masons of Kentucky is in session at Louisville.

A bunch of twenty-four head of fine butchers cattle belonging to E. Weiss & Son were driven up Market street yesterday morning en route to pasturage in the country. They were bought in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dreel of East Second street left last night for Ironton, O., to attend the funeral of the former's cousin, Mr. George Dreel, which occurred in that city this morning at 9 o'clock.

MAYSVILLE LOOSE LEAF TOBACCO MARKET

The loose leaf market here yesterday showed a decided improvement. Prices were higher than for the past ten days and offerings were of better quality. The sales amounted to 111,060 pounds, at prices ranging from $3 to $14.75 a hundred.

The Farmers' House sold 51,775 pounds at from $3 to $14 a hundred.

The Tuck-Bo House sold 59,285 pounds at from $4 to $14.75. Most of the tobacco sold at this house was Missouri grown and on account of bright color brought good prices.

DOINGS OF CONGRESS

President's Message on Reciprocity is Brief—Big Fight Over Rules

WASHINGTON, April 5th—Both Houses of Congress listened today to President Taft's brief message urging the adoption of the reciprocity agreement with Canada.

Then with the Senate adjourned the Democratic House proceeded further with its organization by adopting a new set of rules.

To a great extent the new rules are a repetition of those that have been handed down by many Congresses in the past. The Democratic claim that their greatest reform is taking away from the Speaker his power to appoint committees and to designate the Chairman of each committee. The new rules provide for the election of committees and their Chairmen.

Ex-Speaker Cannon is taking a leading part in the House.

HEAVY STORM

In Counties of Bath and Montgomery Causes $100,000 Loss

SHARPSBURG, KY., April 5th—A terrific storm of wind and rain swept over this neighborhood last night doing damage to buildings, fences and trees. The Presbyterian Church and the residence of Mrs. Eva Knight were partly unroofed, and one wall of the graded school building, a brick structure, was blown in. The all part of the old Barkley homestead, South of town, was completely demolished. T. W. Berry's barn, Northeast of town, the largest in Bath county, containing 60,000 pounds of tobacco, was wrecked, as was also the barn of Bela Sharp, West of town. A number of other barns were blown down or badly damaged.

Mrs. A. R. Evans, wife of a wealthy farmer, had her hip broken when a gate was blown against her, and is in a serious condition.

It is estimated that the damage in this vicinity is about $25,000, partly covered by tornado insurance.
